

Clubs in christ university students welfare organization (SWO)

The Student Welfare Office (SWO) at CHRIST (Deemed to be University) is a vibrant and active platform that provides a plethora of opportunities for students to explore their talents, develop their skills, and engage in a variety of cultural activities. SWO is committed to fostering a holistic and enriching student experience, and its diverse range of programs and initiatives cater to the multifaceted interests of the university's student body.

To join this club every year of beginning swo will be providing form to apply. After application there will be selection process through some activities.

CSA The Centre for Social Action (CSA) is a student body at CHRIST (Deemed to be University) that works towards the development of society. It is a student-led organization that aims to empower students to be socially responsible and to make a positive impact on the world. CSA has a number of different initiatives, Student Volunteerism: , Community Development:International Relations:Child Sponsorship Program , Parivarthana, Waste to Wealth , Emergency Response:

The IIIC (Industry Institute Interaction Cell) at Christ University is a student-run organization that aims to bridge the gap between industry and academia. They offer a variety of programs and events to help students develop the skills and knowledge they need to succeed in the workplace.

here is the placement assistance tips for engineers, Develop a strong resume and cover letter. Develop a strong resume and cover letter. Network with other engineers. Network with other engineers. Prepare for technical interviews. Prepare for technical interviews. Develop your soft skills. Develop your soft skills. Consider internships and co-ops. Consider internships and co-ops. Utilize university resources. Utilize university resources. Stay up-to-date on industry trends. Stay up-to-date on industry trends. Be patient and persistent. Be patient and persistent.

To apply for medical leave in Christ University, students should inform their course coordinator or faculty advisor as soon as possible. A medical certificate from a registered medical practitioner is required, and students must fill out a medical leave application form and attach supporting documents. After submitting the application, students may be called for a medical leave interview. Upon approval, students will receive an official notification of leave sanctioning the duration of their leave. During their medical leave, students should stay informed about their academic progress and communicate with their faculty advisors. Upon completion of their medical leave, students should inform their course coordinator or faculty advisor and return to classes as scheduled.

Christ University offers a wide variety of sports clubs for students to participate in, including basketball, cricket, football, hockey, volleyball, badminton, table tennis, and tennis. These clubs provide opportunities for students to compete at a high level, develop their skills, and make new friends. They also offer a great way to stay active and healthy.

Akash interested in

Students attending sap young startup are akash , vyshnav , aron , jhanvi , yamini , krishna jerin , alen staymrao, sabari , satyam and athul.

Here are some recent events that happened at CHRIST (Deemed to be University), Kengeri Campus:

- Studio on Wheels: The School of Architecture organized a Studio on Wheels program from November 28 to December 2, 2023. This program provided students with the opportunity to visit and study various architectural sites in Bangalore.
- National Seminar on Mind-Body Interaction: The Department of Psychology organized a National Seminar on Mind-Body Interaction on November 24, 2023. This seminar explored the latest research on the relationship between the mind and body.
- MAGNOVITE'23: CHRIST (Deemed to be University), Kengeri Campus, hosted its annual flagship inter-collegiate fest, MAGNOVITE'23, from November 23 to 25, 2023. The fest featured a variety of competitions, events, and workshops.
- Corporate Interface Session on Trends in IT Industry: The School of Business and Management organized a Corporate Interface Session on Trends in IT Industry on November 10, 2023. This session featured a talk by an industry expert on the latest trends in the IT industry.
- Celebrate GIS Day 2023: The School of Architecture organized a Celebrate GIS Day 2023 event on November 11, 2023. This event focused on the importance of geographic information systems (GIS) in various fields.

These are just a few of the many events that have taken place at CHRIST (Deemed to be University), Kengeri Campus, recently. For more information on upcoming events, please visit the university website or follow the campus on social media.